

Rules for VR users

Limit use of VR headsets to 10 minutes per person

Stop at once if the user feels nauseous

Individuals who have experienced seizures should see a doctor before using the headset

Set the volume to a low enough level that users can still hear people talking around them

Children cannot use the headset without a parent's permission